RESULT OF JAPANESE GUN FIRE

One of the wrecked guns of the Iltis fort at Tsing Tao put out of commission by the Japanese siege guns.

Many British Actors on the Firing Line

London.—The Stage says that since the outbreak of the war no fewer than four hundred and sixty actors, vaudeville performers and others have gone to the front. Many others are giving assistance to Great Britain in many ways. Martin Harvey is delivering recruiting addresses at a theater on Sunday evenings when on tour. F. R. Benson is drilling a number of actors and there are many others who have joined the United Arts Force for Home Defense and are active in it. To the front went such men as Robert Loraine, who was wounded while serving with the Royal Flying Corps; J. Grant Brandon Thomas, son of the late Brandon Thomas, who was killed in action; and C. Youngusband, acting manager of the Alhambra, who has been severely wounded. C. T. Hunt Helmsley is in command of a corps of reserves who are guarding railways and bridges. Lewis Casson and Herbert Maule are with the Army Service Corps. Mr. Ommamney is with the City of London Rifles. Richard Winslow, stage manager of the London Hippodrome, is in the Navy. Harry T. Powers, late of the Navy, is with the Sharpshooters. J. A. E. Malone is a captain in the Westminster Dragoons. Walter Freere, husband of Vesta Tilley, is in the Sportsman's corps. Laurie Graydon is in the Middlesex regiment. Huntley Wright is in the City of London Yeomanry.

SURVIVORS OF EMDEN ON BEACHED VESSEL

This photograph of the surviving men of the crew of the German cruiser Emden was taken by an Australian officer on board the vessel after it had been run aground as a result of the battle with the Sydney.

FIGHT BETWEEN GERMAN TAUBE AND FRENCH AERO

This remarkable photograph shows a French war aeroplane pursuing a speedy German Taube, the gunner aboard the former being in the act of firing on the foe with a machine gun.

FRENCH SCOUT IN A TREE

French scout in a high tree viewing the surrounding country on the road to Ypres, where the Germans and allies have been fighting fiercely.

Novel Means of Communication.

Wounded British soldiers in the hands of the Germans have hit upon a novel way of communicating with their families and friends at home. They subscribe small sums of money to the German Red Cross society, but as few of them have any cash they fill up a draft or sign a check to be sent to London and honored. On the back of the draft the banker is requested to communicate the news of the drawer's safety to his home. Tommy Atkins thinks it is well worth a dollar subscription.

PREMIER'S SON IN TRAINING

Cyril Asquith, son of the British premier, is at Hempstead Heath, one of the great British mobilization camps, drilling with the Queen's Westminster, of which he is second lieutenant. The photograph shows him going through the "setting up" exercise.

Japanese Dolls.

The land of the cherry blossom is the modern paradise for dolls so far as housing them is concerned. The home of the little lady of the obi is completed down to the pen and ink and writing pad with which, no doubt, she indites her love notes. And if there is anything in toyland more fetching than a baby Japanese doll, chubby, rosy and serene, this chronicler does not know just what it is.

CZAR INSPECTING HIS COSSACKS

No More Private Automobiles in Berlin.

The day of the private automobile is over in Berlin, for the war department has absolutely forbidden the sale of tires to the public. There seems to be greater fear of the lack of shoes for military motor cars than of the lack of gasoline. The order reads as follows: "Forbidden is every sale and the giving away of all tires of every kind for private or business automobiles and motor bicycles, and this applies not only to unused shoes, but to defective ones and to already used shoes. Not only are the dealers forbidden to dispose of these goods, but the factories are forbidden to deliver any to agents or dealers, even to the extent of stock; them up for future sale. They are forbidden, moreover, to carry out any contracts for the delivery of shoes and tubes. The disposal of shoes can only take place when permission has been given by the inspection division of that branch of the war department which deals with air and power transportation. Permission will only be given in those cases in which it is absolutely necessary to keep up a public transportation system, or where a business or a medical practice cannot be carried on without the aid of vehicles using tires. The manufacture of tires for bicycles without power is absolutely forbidden. This signifies that the well-to-do people of Berlin and elsewhere must give up their automobiles.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping. When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given. Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50¢ bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

WHERE SHE DREW THE LINE

Colored Lady Would Not Stand for Any Dickering With New-Fangled Religion.

"How is your husband?" asked Mrs. Wells of her colored washwoman. "Porely, porely, ma'am. He's laid up with a misery in his back, but he's mighty glad it ain't no toothache. He never could stand toothache." "Too bad!" sympathized the lady. "Did the clothes fit him that my husband sent over?" "No'm," was the regretful reply. "No'm, they didn't. They was too big. He had to gib them to his brother Eph. He was mighty glad they fit Eph, though." "Dear me! I'm sorry the clothes did not fit him. Has he worked any lately?" "No'm, he ain't. Pears like he can't get work. Says he's glad, though, that times is gettin' better." "Well, I declare!" said Mrs. Wells, greatly interested. "Your husband must be a regular optimist!" "No, indeed, he ain't!" denied Aunt Matty, indignantly. "He's a Methodist, an' if he was to line one of them new-fangled religions I'd get a divorce."—Judge.

STOP EATING MEAT IF KIDNEYS OR BACK HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Clean Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

His Indorsement.

The late Lord Roberts once sent his orderly to the bank to cash a check, says Pearson's Weekly, and the clerk wanted it indorsed. "What for?" demanded the soldier. "Well, it's the rule, and I can't pay you the money until you do indorse it," he was told. "Oh, all right!" grumbled the messenger. So he took back the check and bit the end of a pen in deep meditation for a minute or two. Then he wrote this: "I beg to say that I have known Lord Roberts for several years, and he has proved himself, times without number, to be as brave as a lion, but always kindly considerate to those who serve under him. And I have, therefore, great pleasure in respectfully indorsing his check."

Evidently Trusted Him.

"I don't know of but one woman who has perfect confidence in her husband." "Are you sure there is one?" "Yes; she poses for him in vaudeville in a knife-throwing act."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

It's awfully hard to keep up appearances without an effort.

Just a few more steps to go, and fashions will change with the moon.
